

17th Annual Conference of the UK Clinical Ethics Network

CLINICAL ETHICS NETWORK

14th June 2017

Family Matters

Making Decisions with and for Patients

Venue: Liverpool Medical Institution, Liverpool

Call for Poster Abstracts

Background:

The main topic of the UKCEN annual conference this year is Family Matters – making decisions with and for patients. The aim of the conference is to provide a programme of interests to health professionals, academics, members of clinical ethics committees. Clinical Ethics Committees and other elements of Clinical Ethics Consultation, as key elements of good clinical governance and practice, can be instrumental in raising awareness of ethical issues in medicine and in providing practical support for health professionals.

Invitation:

The organisers invite abstracts (250 words) on topics that are relevant to clinical ethics and clinical ethics committees, to be submitted for poster-presentation during the conference.

Formats may vary, e.g. from interesting case histories and reports, empirical studies or audits, theory-based analysis etc.

Students and Trainees are especially encouraged to participate. Accepted abstracts will be published in the conference booklet.

To submit a poster for display at the forthcoming UK Clinical Ethics Network Conference, please complete the following form and return it to: Mr John Bridson, E-mail: John.Bridson@rlbuht.nhs.uk

Deadline for abstract submission:

20th May 2017
