

UKCEN Conference 2015

Rights, Duty and Healthcare

17th June 2016

Programme
09:25-09:30	Welcome	Dr Karen Le Ball, Chair UKCEN
09:30-09:35	Introduction	Dr Premila Fade, Conference Organiser
09:35-10:20	'Rights based approaches to ethical thinking'	Dr Carolyn Johnston, Adviser Medical Law & Ethics, King's College London
10:20-11:05	'The Human Rights Act and the reshaping of Health Care Law'	Professor Jonathan Montgomery, University College London
11:05-11:30	Coffee
11:30-12:15	'Personal responsibility and health; a public health perspective.'	Professor John Coggon, University of Southampton
12:15-13:00	Panel discussion with UKCEN Trustees: 'Rights, Duty and Healthcare'
13:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:00	AGM
	Seminars: Rights, duty and the therapeutic relationship; different perspectives
14:00-14:50	A) Mrs Dawne Garrett, Older People's Services lead, RCN
	B) Mrs Nicola Bryan, Senior OT, Poole Hospital
	C) Dr Michael White, GP, Waterlooville
14:50-15:35	A) Dr Barry Newman, ICU Consultant, Poole Hospital
	B) Mr Dexter Perry, Consultant Surgeon, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
	C) Professor Minesh Khashu, Consultant Neonatologist, Poole Hospital
15:35-16:00	Tea
16:00-16:50	Debate: This house believes that 'Physician assisted suicide should be legalised'
	For:	Dr Alexandra Mullock, Lecturer, University of Manchester
	Against:	Professor Rob George, Consultant Palliative Care Medicine, St Christopher's Hospice
16:50-17:00	Closing remarks
17:00	Finish	