

UKCEN Annual Conference

Family matters – making decisions with and for patients

Liverpool Medical Institution, Wednesday 14th June 2017

Time	Session title	Speaker
08.45-09.25	Arrival and registration
09.25-09.35	Welcome and Introduction	Dr Karen Le Ball , Consultant Geriatrician, Chair UKCEN John Bridson , Clinical Ethicist, RLBHHT,* Conference Organiser
09.35-10.25	What place liberty – depriving or caring?	Mr Alex Ruck Keene Barrister and Wellcome Trust Research Fellow at King's College London
10.25-11.15	Challenges for families and clinicians when making decisions with children on the cusp of adulthood	Dr Paul Baines , Paediatric Intensivist & Clinical Ethics Lead, Alder Hey Children's NHSFT
11.15-11.35	Coffee and poster viewing
11.35-12.25	Family attitudes to organ donation following the introduction of deemed consent in Wales	Dr Leah McLaughlin , Principal Investigator, 'Organ Donation Study', School of Social Sciences, Bangor University & Wales Kidney Research Unit, Cardiff University.
12.25-13.40	Lunch and poster viewing
13.10-13.40	AGM
13.40-14.25	Seminar set 1
	Criminalisation of HIV transmission – do we owe it to the partner?	Transitioning medical care: relinquishing responsibility for decision-making to your child
	Dr Mark Lawton Consultant in Sexual Health and HIV Medicine, RLBHHT	Dr Vicky Thornton Director of Nursing Studies, University of Liverpool
		Families, 'futility' and best interests in critical care
		Dr Lawrence McCrossan Consultant Intensivist, RLBHHT
14.35-15.20	Seminar set 2
	Dementia and feeding – are 'ethics' and families in sync?	Safeguarding Young People with Learning Disabilities and Autism
	Dr Neil Carmichael Consultant Geriatrician, Chair RLBHHT CEC	Mrs Karen Whittle Assistant Chief Nurse, Safeguarding, RLBHHT Mrs Serena Jones Learning Disabilities Liaison Nurse, RLBHHT
		Is it right to allow families to override deceased patients' consent to donate
		Paula Rea Specialist Nurse – Organ Donation, NHSBT
15.20-15.40	Coffee and poster viewing
15.40-16.50	Making decisions for the vegetative or minimally conscious patient – the positioning of the family in court judgements and clinical practice	Prof Richard Huxtable , Centre for Ethics in Medicine, University of Bristol Prof Jenny Kitinger , Coma and Disorders of Consciousness Research Centre, Cardiff University
16.50-17.10	Poster Award and Closing Remarks
17.10	Finish

*RLBHHT – Royal Liverpool and Broadgreen University Hospitals NHS Trust

Registration: <http://ime.datawareonline.co.uk/Event-Booking/EventId/1024>