

14 June 2017

Liverpool Medical Institution

Family Matters – making decisions with and for patients

Copyright: auremar / 123RF Stock Photo

Speakers:

- Mr Alex Ruck Keene, Barrister & Wellcome Trust Research Fellow at King's College London
- Dr Paul Baines, Paediatric Intensivist & Clinical Ethics Lead, Alder Hey Children's NHSFT
- Dr Leah McLaughlin, Principal Investigator, 'Organ Donation Study', School of Social Sciences, Bangor University & Wales Kidney Research Unit, Cardiff University
- Prof Richard Huxtable, Centre for Ethics in Medicine, University of Bristol
- Prof Jenny Kitinger, Coma & Disorders of Consciousness Research Centre, Cardiff University

Topics:

- What place liberty – depriving or caring?
- Challenges for families & clinicians when making decisions with children on the cusp of adulthood
- Family attitudes to organ donation following the introduction of deemed consent in Wales
- Making decisions for the vegetative or minimally conscious patient

Pre conference dinner: Liverpool Medical Institution, 13 June 2017, 7.30pm

Registration: <http://ime.datawareonline.co.uk/Event-Booking/EventId/1024>